

As a paying customer of satellite radio I value the services I receive, including traffic and weather. I would encourage the FCC to support the free market and refuse to support an entrenched industry that is unable or unwilling to compete on service, by rejecting NAB's petition 04-160.